If the Event of Force Majeure continues for 21 consecutive days after the end of the period of delivery, then Buyers have the option to cancel the unfulfilled part of the contract by serving a notice on Sellers not later than the first business day after expiry of the 21 day period.

If this option to cancel is not exercised then the contract shall remain in force for an additional period of 14 consecutive days, after which, if the Event of Force Majeure has not ceased, any unfulfilled part of the contract shall be automatically cancelled.

If the Event of Force Majeure ceases before the contract or any unfulfilled part thereof can be cancelled, Sellers shall notify Buyers without delay that the Event of Force Majeure has ceased. The period of delivery shall be extended, from the cessation, to as much time as was left for delivery under the contract prior to the occurrence of the Event of Force Majeure. The burden of proof lies upon Sellers and the parties shall have no liability to each other for delay and/or non-fulfilment under this clause, provided that Sellers shall have provided to Buyers, if required, satisfactory evidence justifying the delay or non-fulfilment.

18. DOCUMENTS BY-PASS (STRING)

(a) In case of resales in string any party involved may propose a documents by-pass whereby the first or a subsequent seller is to present documents at his own price directly to the last or a previous buyer.

(b) Such proposal is to be made in good time prior to commencement of loading of the nominated vessel and to contain names of sellers and buyers in the string, their individual prices and the suggested settlement of price differentials.

(c) All parties in the string may in their own absolute discretion refuse or agree without prejudice to their rights and obligations under their own contract, and the proposal will be declared in force only if all parties in the string have confirmed their agreement, otherwise it will be declared failed. Agreement by each party shall include their express acceptance of the Arbitration Clause and of the Insolvency Clause. Either declaration, in force or failed, to be notified without delay to all parties involved by the party having made the original proposal.

(d) If no such declaration is received by the time the vessel has started to load, the first seller may withdraw his agreement and present documents to his own buyer, or at his option charge interest at the rate stipulated in the Interest Clause for any time lost in presentation of documents.

(e) When a string proposal is declared in force, each party shall be deemed to have entered into a contract with all other parties in the string (who also are trading on the same terms), including express agreement by all parties to arbitration and the application of the Insolvency Clause. It shall also be deemed to have transferred automatically from the first to the last buyers the obligation to pay for the goods and to cover insurance in accordance with the Insurance Clause. Likewise the acceptance of a string proposal by the parties other than the first seller and the last buyers shall constitute their firm commitment to pay any price differentials and other monies due.

(f) Should the nominated vessel for a string already in force be substituted, totally or in part, the first seller is under no obligation to commence loading the substitute vessel prior to the receipt of his own counterparty's agreement.

(g) Despite agreeing without prejudice to a document by-pass proposal, all the parties' rights and obligations under their individual contracts, save as amended by operation of the agreed by-pass, shall remain fully in force. Prior to the presentation of documents to the end buyer any party in the string may in the event of unforeseen and serious circumstances, including the insolvency or threatened insolvency of any party in the string, withdraw agreement giving immediate notice of such withdrawal to all other parties. The documents shall then be presented through the string between individual counterparties.

(h) To permit settlement of price differentials the end buyer in the string shall without delay confirm receipt of shipping documents and the exact quality shipped to all parties involved, and price differentials as agreed shall then be paid within 48 hours from receipt of the relevant debit note. Carrying charges and/or quality allowances, if due, shall be settled between individual counterparties. Interest shall be charged in the event of late payment of any invoice or debit note.

(i) All sellers and buyers under contracts containing the Documents By-Pass Clause shall be deemed to have entered into mutual agreements with one another to the above effect, and to agree to submit to arbitration all questions and claims between them or any of them in regard to the execution of this clause in accordance with the Arbitration Clause of this contract.

19. NOTICES

All notices required to be served on the parties pursuant to this contract shall be communicated rapidly in legible form. Methods of rapid communication for the purposes of this clause are defined and mutually recognised as: - either telex, or letter if delivered by hand on the date of writing, or telefax, or E-mail, or other electronic means, always subject to the proviso that if receipt of any notice is contested, the burden of proof of transmission shall be on the sender who shall, in the case of a dispute, establish, to the satisfaction of the arbitrator(s) or board of appeal appointed pursuant to the Arbitration Clause, that the notice was actually transmitted to the addressee. In case of resales/repurchases all notices shall be served without delay by sellers on their respective buyers or vice versa, and any notice received after 1600 hours on a business day shall be deemed to have been received on the business day following. A notice to the Brokers or Agent shall be deemed a notice under this contract.

20. NON-BUSINESS DAYS

Saturdays, Sundays and the officially recognised and/or legal holidays of the respective countries and any days, which GAFTA may declare as non-business days for specific purposes, shall be non-business days. Should the time limit for doing any act or serving any notice expire on a non-business day, the time so limited shall be extended until the first business day thereafter. The period of delivery shall not be affected by this clause.

21. DEFAULT

In default of fulfilment of contract by either party, the following provisions shall apply: -

(a) The party other than the defaulter shall, at their discretion have the right, after serving a notice on the defaulter, to sell or purchase, as the case may be, against the defaulter, and such sale or purchase shall establish the default price.

(b) If either party be dissatisfied with such default price or if the right at (a) above is not exercised and damages cannot be mutually agreed, then the assessment of damages shall be settled by arbitration.

(c) The damages payable shall be based on, but not limited to, the difference between the contract price and either the default price established under (a) above or upon the actual or estimated value of the goods, on the date of default, established under (b) above.

(d) In all cases the damages shall, in addition, include any proven additional expenses which would directly and naturally result in the ordinary course of events from the defaulter's breach of contract, but in no case shall damages include loss of profit on any sub-contracts made by the party defaulted against or others unless the arbitrator(s) or board of appeal, having regard to special circumstances, shall in his/their sole and absolute discretion think fit.

(e) Damages, if any, shall be computed on the quantity called for, but if no such quantity has been declared then on the mean contract quantity and any option available to either party shall be deemed to have been exercised accordingly in favour of the mean contract quantity.

22. CIRCLE

Where Sellers re-purchase from their Buyers or from any subsequent buyer the same goods or part thereof, a circle shall be considered to exist as regards the particular goods so re-purchased, and the provisions of the Default Clause shall not apply. (For the purpose of this clause the same goods shall mean goods of the same description, from the same country of origin, of the same quality, and, where applicable, of the same analysis warranty, for delivery from the same port(s) of loading during the same period of delivery). Different currencies shall not invalidate the circle.

Subject to the terms of the Prevention of Delivery Clause in the contract, if the circle is established before the goods are delivered, or if the goods are not delivered, invoices based on the mean contract quantity, or if the goods have been delivered, invoices based on the delivered quantity, shall be settled by all buyers and their sellers in the circle by payment by all buyers to their sellers of the excess of the Sellers' invoice amount over the lowest invoice amount in the circle. Payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the last date for delivery, or, should the circle not be ascertained before the expiry of this time, then payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the circle is ascertained.

Where the circle includes contracts expressed in different currencies the lowest invoice amount shall be replaced by the market price on the first day for contractual delivery and invoices shall be settled between each buyer and seller in the circle by payment of the differences between the market price and the relative contract price in the currency of the contract.

All sellers and buyers shall give every assistance to ascertain the circle and when a circle shall have been ascertained in accordance with this clause same shall be binding on all parties to the circle. As between buyers and sellers in the circle, the non-presentation of documents by sellers to their buyers shall not be considered a breach of contract.

Should any party in the circle prior to the due date of payment commit any act comprehended in the Insolvency Clause of this contract, settlement by all parties in the circle shall be calculated at the closing out price as provided for in the Insolvency Clause, which shall be taken as a basis for settlement, instead of the lowest invoice amount in the circle. In this event respective buyers shall make payment to their sellers or respective sellers shall make payment to their buyers of the difference between the closing out price and the contract price.
