7. PERIOD OF DELIVERY.....

Buyers shall accept delivery and Sellers shall deliver within the period specified in the contract. Sellers may at their option and after notification in writing of their intentions, deliver the quantity due for collection or delivery either in whole or in part to a third party store/warehouse at Buyers' risk with all charges for Buyers' account. Should Sellers, through no fault of Buyers not have completed delivery within the specified period of the contract for proved failure of delivery by the supplying mill, not due to reasons covered by the Force Majeure, Strikes Clause, Sellers shall make Buyers an allowance in accordance with the following scale:-

8. PART DELIVERIES

Each delivery shall be considered a separate contract.

9. PAYMENT

(a) Payment

(b) Interest. If there has been unreasonable delay in any payment, interest appropriate to the currency involved shall be charged. If such charge is not mutually agreed, a dispute shall be deemed to exist which shall be settled by arbitration. Otherwise interest shall be payable only where specifically provided in the terms of the contract or by an award of arbitration. The terms of this clause do not override the parties' contractual obligation under sub-clause (a).

10. FORCE MAJEURE, STRIKES ETC.

Should the execution of this contract or any unfulfilled portion thereof be prevented by strikes, breakdown of machinery, including the late arrival of the raw material caused by force majeure, or by any cause comprehended in the term "Force Majeure", provided that notice has been served by Sellers within 7 consecutive days from the occurrence, or not later than 30 consecutive days before the commencement of the delivery period, whichever is later, the time for delivery shall be extended for a period of 30 consecutive days. After the additional period of 30 consecutive days, the contract shall be void for the unfulfilled portion so prevented. Buyers shall have no claim against Sellers for delay or non-fulfilment under this clause, provided that Sellers shall have supplied to Buyers if required, satisfactory evidence to justify the delay or non-fulfilment.

11. CIRCLE

Where Sellers re-purchase from their Buyers or from any subsequent buyer the same goods or part thereof, a circle shall be considered to exist as regards the particular goods so re-purchased, and the provisions of the Default Clause shall not apply. (For the purpose of this clause the same goods shall mean goods of the same description, from the same country of origin, of the same quality, and, where applicable, of the same analysis warranty, for shipment to the same port(s) of destination during the same period of shipment). Different currencies shall not invalidate the circle.

Subject to the terms of the Force Majeure Clause in the contract, if the goods are not appropriated, or, having been appropriated documents are not presented, invoices based on the mean contract quantity shall be settled by all Buyers and their Sellers in the circle by payment by all Buyers to their Sellers of the excess of the Sellers' invoice amount over the lowest invoice amount in the circle. Payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the last day for appropriation, or, should the circle not be ascertained before the expiry of this time, then payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the circle is ascertained.

Where the circle includes contracts expressed in different currencies the lowest invoice amount shall be replaced by the market price on the first day for contractual shipment and invoices shall be settled between each Buyer and his Seller in the circle by payment of the differences between the market price and the relative contract price in currency of the contract.

All Sellers and Buyers shall give every assistance to ascertain the circle and when a circle shall have been ascertained in accordance with this clause same shall be binding on all parties to the circle. As between Buyers and Sellers in the circle, the non presentation of documents by Sellers to their Buyers shall not be considered a breach of contract. Should any party in the circle prior to the due date of payment commit any act comprehended in the Insolvency Clause of his contract, settlement by all parties in the circle shall be calculated at the closing out price as provided for in the Insolvency Clause, which shall be taken as a basis for settlement, instead of the lowest invoice amount in the circle. In this event respective Buyers shall make payment to their Sellers or respective Sellers shall make payment to their Buyers of the difference between the closing out price and the contract price.
